

Intuition Instructions

What you need

- Little Big Warrior Printable
- Scissors
- Headbands or make one
- Sticky tape or blu-tack or paper clips

Set Up

Print & cut out all spiritual inspired cards.

You may like to laminate for long lasting.

If making headband, cut a 2-3 strips of paper/cardboard and glue together to make it long enough to go around your head.

Use Blu-tak/paper clip to join around head.

Or cut elastic long enough to tie around your head.

Instructions

Place cards in a hat/box or lay face down.

Each player chooses a card and without looking at the name attaches the card to the headband using tape/blu-tak/paper clip and then places the headband on their head.

Alternatively, you can just hold the card on your head.

Now everyone knows the identity of the players - except the player!

To find out what spiritual being you are, each player takes turns asking questions.

Such as "Am I an animal?" or "Can I fly?"

To win the game, a player must be the first to guess who it is on their card.

* With my 4 year old, we give him the clues and he guesses who he is. It is just as fun and helps with their development.

* This game is exactly like celebrity heads
